

Page 1 of 4

Ted-E-Bear stacks his softest pillows between two chairs. He wants a reading fort big enough for one bear and one enormous adventure.

Page 2 of 4

He pulls a blue blanket over the top—but whoomph! It slides down and buries him in a woolly heap.

Page 3 of 4

Panda-Cake holds one corner while Ted clips the other. Inside their sturdy fort, Ted switches on a lamp and opens a story they can share.

Page 4 of 4

Rain whispers at the window, but the little fort is cosy and bright. Ted decides the best forts are not the biggest—they are the ones with room for a friend.

Questions for Ted-E-Bear’s Blanket Fort

Read the story together first. Use one question at each page, then the question at the end. Answers are below the dotted line: fold them under or cover them while reading.

Page 1

Talk together: What does Ted want to make with the pillows?

Page 2

Talk together: What went wrong with the blanket?

Page 3

Talk together: How did Panda-Cake help the story begin?

Page 4

Talk together: What did Ted learn about a cosy fort?

After reading

Why did the fort stay up when Panda-Cake helped?

---

Answers (fold under before reading)

After reading: They held and clipped the blanket together. Panda-Cake held one corner while Ted clipped the other.