

Page 1 of 4

Stripe-Scout unrolls her map beside a fork in the trail. One route is short and muddy; the other is long and marked with tiny stars.

Page 2 of 4

Snack-Spector spots a crumbly clue beneath the star sign: “Choose the path that leaves no friend behind.” The short route suddenly looks less clever.

Page 3 of 4

They take the longer path and help each other cross a wobbly bridge. When one board squeaks, Stripe-Scout waits until every paw is safely over.

Page 4 of 4

The trail ends at a picnic beneath a brilliant rainbow. The treasure is not just the food—it is arriving together with nobody missing.

Questions for Stripe-Scout’s Trail Clues

Read the story together first. Use one question at each page, then the question at the end. Answers are below the dotted line: fold them under or cover them while reading.

Page 1

Talk together: What choice does the map give Stripe-Scout?

Page 2

Talk together: What does the clue tell them to value?

Page 3

Talk together: How does Stripe-Scout make the path safer?

Page 4

Talk together: What is the real treasure in this story?

After reading

Why did Stripe-Scout choose the longer path?

Answers (fold under before reading)

After reading: She wanted everyone to arrive safely together. The clue mattered more to her than taking a shortcut.