

Page 1 of 4

Meow-inara curls beside the moonlit window, but every tiny sound makes her ears spring up. Tomorrow’s concert keeps marching through her thoughts.

Page 2 of 4

Wise Owl chooses a bedtime story about a musician whose first note wobbled. She reads slowly and leaves room between each sentence.

Page 3 of 4

Meow-inara breathes in during one quiet line and breathes out during the next. The concert is still tomorrow, but it no longer fills the whole room.

Page 4 of 4

At last she feels sleepy. “My first note can wobble too,” she murmurs, closing her eyes beneath the patient moon.

Questions for Meow-inara’s Moonlight Story

Read the story together first. Use one question at each page, then the question at the end. Answers are below the dotted line: fold them under or cover them while reading.

Page 1

Talk together: Why can Meow-inara not settle?

Page 2

Talk together: Why might Wise Owl choose this particular story?

Page 3

Talk together: What helps Meow-inara’s thoughts become quieter?

Page 4

Talk together: What has Meow-inara accepted by the end?

After reading

How did the bedtime story help Meow-inara?

Answers (fold under before reading)

After reading: She accepted that her first note might wobble too. She listened, breathed slowly and stopped expecting a perfect first note.