

Page 1 of 5

Meow-inara waits by the green gate for a music sheet in the mail. Rain dots her coat.

Page 2 of 5

The sheet does not arrive. Across the road, Pork-ulele plays the tune from a small boat.

Page 3 of 5

Meow-inara cannot see each note, so she listens for the beat. She paints three sound marks: slow, high, sweet.

Page 4 of 5

They meet beneath the moon and play a duet. Her clear notes float over his deep chords.

Page 5 of 5

The missing sheet arrives the next day, but Meow-inara keeps her painted score. A good team can hear a new way forward.

Questions for Meow-inara’s Vowel-Team Duet

Read the story together first. Use one question at each page, then the question at the end. Answers are below the dotted line: fold them under or cover them while reading.

Page 1

Talk together: What is Meow-inara waiting for?

Page 2

Talk together: Where is Pork-ulele playing?

Page 3

Talk together: How does listening help her?

Page 4

Talk together: What do the friends play together?

Page 5

Talk together: Why does she keep the painted score?

After reading

How does Meow-inara learn the tune?

Answers (fold under before reading)

After reading: She listens and paints sound marks. She listens for the beat and paints marks for the sounds she hears.